COLLECTION DESCRIPTION

The collection consists of Eugenia Mitchell's genealogy records and other miscellaneous records of her life events. The collection also include photographs and genealogy records of her ancestors dating back to 1700s. Eugenia Mitchell (April 1, 1914- November 24, 2011) was daughter of Charles Samuel Mitchell and Margery Mae Smith. Ms Mitchell was born in Ithaca and continued to live in the house her father built on Maple Ave. until she died. She was the last of Mitchells living in the area.

The Eugenia Mitchell Family collection is divided into two parts. The section that specifically provides information on Eugenia Mitchell includes her school records, newspaper articles about Mitchell family, Mitchell genealogy, obituaries and photographs.

The second part of the collection has information on generations before the Mitchell family, starting from James Banfield who came to United States from England during the revolutionary war. The miscellaneous collection has photographs, books, obituaries among other things relating to the family. There is a large collection of photographs that has been arranged by the family's last name.
